

April 2, 2025

TO ALL VILLAGES:

Town and village officials across Nassau County strongly denounced the latest attempt by Albany to override local zoning laws. This year, two dangerous bills threaten suburban communities: one that would limit the ability of towns, cities, and villages to impose zoning requirements, and another that seeks to establish a Social Housing Development Authority – a public benefit corporation with the power to seize land and build housing without local input. For more information, click on this link:

<https://oysterbaytown.com/town-and-village-officials-stand-against-albanys-latest-attack-on-local-zoning/>

Thank you,

Suffolk County Village Officials Association
324 South Service Road, Suite 205
Melville, NY 11747